“Multiply” by Francis Chan

Jesus told his disciples, 'Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you.' This commission includes believers today. The task may seem large, but it doesn't have to...

“Transformational Discipleship”

by Eric Geiger

Transformational Discipleship describes the process that brings to life that kind of person described in the Bible. There's no magic formula or mantra to recite here, but rather a substantive measure of research with churches and individuals who have wholeheartedly answered the call of Jesus to make disciples.

“Transforming Discipleship”

by Greg Ogden

Author Greg Ogden addresses the need for discipleship in the local church and recovers Jesus' method of accomplishing life change by investing in just a few people at a time. Ogden sets forth his vision for transforming both the individual disciple and discipleship itself, showing how discipleship can become a self-replicating process with ongoing impact from generation to generation.

“BE Satisfied”

by Warren W. Weirsb

King Solomon had it all. Wealth. Power. Prestige. Yet despite having everything he could ever want, Solomon was still unsatisfied. He soon came to a startling conclusion: Even if we have it all, it is never enough. This revelation inspired the book of Ecclesiastes, Solomon's profound thoughts on the meaning of life.

“What the Bible Is All About”

by Dr. Henrietta C. Mears

Discover for yourself why What the Bible Is All About is one of the world's best-selling Bible handbooks. This user-friendly guide makes it easier than ever to plant the Word in your heart and mind!

“BE Mature”

by Warren W. Weirsb

Perhaps of all the books in the New Testament, James most squarely focuses on results. His pull-no-punches approach to spiritual maturity, his preference for action over words, makes his text the perfect backdrop for a study of how to grow in our faith.

“The Cost of Discipleship”

by Dietrich Bonhoeffer

What can the call to discipleship, the adherence to the word of Jesus, mean today to the businessman, the soldier, the laborer, or the aristocrat? What did Jesus mean to say to us? What is His will for us today? Drawing on the Sermon on the Mount—“Cheap grace,” Bonhoeffer wrote, “is the grace we bestow on ourselves...grace without discipleship.... “Costly grace” is the gospel which must be sought again and again.

“The Complete Book of Discipleship” by Bill Hull

Well organized and readily accessible, The Complete Book of Discipleship pulls together into one convenient, comprehensive volume relevant topics to discipleship such as:

- Spiritual growth
- Transformation
- Spiritual disciplines
- Discipleship in the local church and beyond

“Don't Waste Your Life”

By John Piper

A passionate call for this generation to make their lives count for eternity. Piper discusses the risks for those who seek to accomplish something in life for the sake of Christ.

“Twelve Ordinary Men”

By John MacArthur

Contrary to popular belief, we do not have to be perfect to do God's work. Jesus chose ordinary men - fisherman, tax collectors, political zealots - and turned their weakness into strength, producing greatness from utter uselessness. MacArthur draws principles from Christ's careful, hands-on training of the original twelve disciples for today's modern disciple - you.
